BRAZILIAN ACADEMY OF SCIENCES

---

1 February 2015

I have the honour and the pleasure to warmly congratulate The Chinese Academy of Sciences, CAS, on the occasion of its Sixtieth Anniversary. CAS became one of the very important Academies of Sciences in the World today.

Under the Presidency of Professor Chunli Bai its role in the World and, allow me to say, also in China, keeps increasing, stimulating scientists and young talented scientists to appreciate The Value of Science and to work to the benefit of Societies in China and Worldwide.
